TOWNSHIP OFFICERS.

At the first meeting held after the organization of the township the following officers were elected: A. H. Nixon, Supervisor; A. C. Smith, Town Clerk; Star Titus, Assessor; Robert Richardson, Collector; A. C. Thompson, Justice of the Peace; John V. McLean, Constable; John Rockwood, Overseer of the Poor; Abijah Smith, Samuel Walker and Anthony Overacre, Commissioners of Highways. The township officers elected in 1884 are as follows: Richard Bishop, Supervisor; F. G. Mayes, Clerk, John Huemann, Assessor; Geo. Rothermel, Collector; Castor Adams, Isaac Harsh and A. P. Colby, Commissioners of Highways; H. N. Holmes, Constable; James B. Perry and Homer Wattles, Justices of the Peace.

MC HENRY VILLAGE.

This, the old site of the county seat, was the first town that took shape in McHenry County. This village was laid out by a Chicago surveyor by the name of Bradley in the year 1837 through the instrumentality of Henry McLean. Mr. McLean built the first house in the place, a log building 12 x 16, near the present site of the Riverside House. It served as a preaching house and a house of public entertainment several months after it was built.

The first store in the place was opened by Dr. Christy Wheeler.

The first wagon-maker was Richard Bishop who opened a shop in 1840.

Nathan Haight was the first blacksmith. He came from New York in 1837 and lived in McHenry engaged at his trade till his death in 1842.

The first hotel was built by B. B. Brown in 1837. It was a log building and served its purpose about twenty years. The second hotel was the Mansion House, built by Horace Long who ran it about ten years. His successors have been numerous and the building has been used as a hotel up till within a short time. It was formerly the old court-house which came into disuse upon the removal of the county seat. It was built in 1838; was a frame structure 40 x 60 feet and two stories high. About the year 1851 Mr. Baldwin built a fine frame hotel, the Fremont House, on the present site of the Riverside Hotel which was burned about eight years later. The Riverside House was built in 1864 by John W. and David Smith. It is a three-story brick building 40 x 60 feet in size. The entire building is occupied as a hotel with the ex-

CHEESE FACTORY.

In 1883 a butter and cheese association was formed here and erected a factory at a cost of $2,200 without the machinery which has since been added at considerable expense. About 1,000 pounds of milk are taken in daily.

In 1867 R. A. Buckland, at an expense of $3,500, built a cheese factory here and ran it but one year and did a fair business but shut down in 1868, and has never resumed the business. The machinery was sold and the building is used as a private residence.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

This body of Christians was organized in 1849 through the united efforts of Wm. Mead, John Rockwood and a Mr. Lester, who at that time comprised the most of this settlement. For a time they held meetings in school-houses but at length joined with the Methodists and built the present Methodist Episcopal church. The two societies could not agree and the result was that most of the Congregational society returned to their former practice of holding services in the school-house. In 1861 they built a house of worship at a cost of $2,800 to which they afterward added a bell which cost $500. This church was built by Wm. Mead, now deceased, and Chauncey Beckwith, who bore all the expense themselves. Till 1874 services were regularly held but since that time they have seldom met as a band of worshipers; most of the original members are dead and some have moved away. The church now stands idle as a monument to the past religious habits of this community.

The following is a list of the business places of Ringwood: Boots and shoes, Perry Smith; blacksmith, J. N. Grimolby; groceries, Ben Rainthrop; grain-dealer, John Rainthrop; merchants, J. W. Cristy, B. R. Duerz; physician, J. H. Soothill.

JOHNSBURG.

This place was settled about the year 1852 by Germans who are the sole inhabitants of the place still. It was named in honor of one of their number who assumed the position of leader or director of the little settlement; the Christian name of this personage being John, the place was subsequently called Johnsburg. As will be seen by the business directory of the place, it is quite a trading point, though seldom patronized by Americans.

ST. JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

This church was organized in 1843 by Father Portman. They proceeded at once to build a log house of worship. At that time the congregation consisted of but three families, viz.: Nick Adams, Jacob Smith and Nick Frett. They occupied the log church about five years when they built a frame one which served the purpose till 1879 when the present fine church was built. It is a stone structure 50 x 133 feet in dimensions, and was erected at a cost of $45,000. The following priests have had charge of this church: Fathers Jacomett, Geiperick, Curates, Frownhover, Leirman, Fenn, Fegers, Gerst, Hermann, and Greenbaum, who is the present incumbent. The church has grown in numbers to 275 families. In addition, and in connection with the church, they have a large German school where the children of the congregation are taught.

MARBLE WORKS.

These works were established in 1868 by Henry Miller who has since then been doing a steady and prosperous business. These are as large as any in the county and here some of the finest monuments and memorial designs are executed. The sales amount annually to over $3,000.

The following is a summary of Johnsburg's business. Blacksmiths, Henry Hetterman, Martin May; carpenters, Carles Mathew, Peter Rothermel, John Weber; wagon-maker, Peter Werfs; hotel, Charles Carles; cheese manufacturing, E. Buchanan; merchants, Charles Kuhnert, Ley & Adams, Simon Nichols; Masons, Mathias Hohlmann, Theodore Meyer; marble-cutter, Henry Miller; painters, Mat. Heimer, Frank Miller; shoemakers, Wm. Althoff, Joseph Palmes, Steffen Thelen; saloons, Peter Adam, Martin Boughner, L. N. Freund, Mathias Heimer, John Molitur, John Thelen.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Castor Adams was born in Prussia, May 20, 1832, a son of Nicholas and Susanah Adams, natives of Germany, who came to America in 1841 and located in McHenry County, Ill., on the farm where our subject now lives, where the mother died in 1843, aged thirty-four years, and the father, June 26, 1879, aged eighty-one years. Castor Adams attended school in his native country, but after coming to America was obliged to help his father on the farm and attended school only a month. He was married Oct. 30, 1855, to Anna, daughter of John P. and Kate Huemann, natives of Germany. They have eight children—John, Emma, Peter, Nicholas, Joseph, Katie, William and Mary. He has served as Assessor two terms, Road Commissioner four terms, and School Director several years.

Rev. J. E. Bassett was born in Rushville, Ontario Co., N. Y., Sept. 10, 1815, a son of Fortunatus Bassett, a native of New York, of English descent. His mother died a few days after his birth and his father survived only a few years. His boyhood was spent on a farm. His educational advantages were limited to the common school, which he attended in the winter till twenty years of age. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church and in 1835 was licensed to preach. He joined the Erie Conference and was under its appointment nine years. He then located in Mentor, Lake Co., N. Y., and engaged in farming four years. From there he moved to Chester, Ohio, and four years later to McHenry County. Although he now sustains no conference relation he devotes a part of his time to church work. He was married Sept. 11, 1840, to Celestia, daughter of Eber and Eliphalet Norton. They have had three children; but two are living—Wilbur F., now on the farm with his father, and Adeline, wife of David Magroon. Mr. Bassett has a fine farm of 128 acres, which is well stocked, and his farm buildings are comfortable.

Chauncey Beckwith was born in Newport, N. H., Feb. 16, 1811, a son of Jabez and Catherine Beckwith, natives of New Hampshire. His father died at the age of thirty-five, and his mother at the age of forty years. He received a good education, attending school in the winter till twenty years of age. In May, 1836, he left New Hampshire, and came to McHenry County, Ill., and laid a claim. At that time there were but three families in the township. He remained one year, improving his land, and in June, 1837, went to New Hampshire and was married to Sophonia, daughter of Elias and Sally Thatcher. They were married Aug. 8, 1837, and the same day started for their new home, arriving Sept. 10. They have been industrious, and now own 250 acres of fine land. They have had two children—Ira, died in 1869, leaving a wife and three daughters—Stella, Elona and Belle; George, married Ernestine Irish, and has had four children, two living—Ella M. and Alta. Nora E. died July 13, 1877, of scarlet-fever, and Chancey died July 19, 1882, of same disease. Politically, Mr. Beckwith is a Republican. He is an active member of the Congregational church.

LDS film 571063, extracted in batch M981502, gives date of marriage as 15 Feb 1820 at Katholisch, Langenfeld, Rheinland, Preussen.

HUSBAND Niklauz MULLER
NOTES:
Original from Mary Klapperich Leonard/Pauline Kennebeck. Pauline says born 1776, died 14 Apr 1859.

Burial Vol 1, p 63, lists age of deceased as 82 years. Same page, 13 March 1860, records widow of Nicolaus death. Her age matches Anna Klein Muller's.
LDS records include no Nicolaus in 1780 with possible parents or city. There is a Nicolaus Muller, parents Petri Muller and Annae Mariae christened 11 Jul 1777, Koenigstein, Im Taunus, Hessen-naussau, Preussen. LDS film 958785 lists this child as a legitimate son. Therefore, not the correct person.

Workers at LDS Family History Center say it was common for first children to be born out of wedlock because of German laws which prevented marriage before meeting financial and other requirements.

Everett Thomas, genealogy of wife Caroline Freund, in McHenry Co.IL Gen Soc quarterly, shows birthdate of 15 Feb 1780.

Christina Mueller Klapperich and other family members always said that Anna Marie Huemann was a twin. Records of Mower County do not go back to 1858. Church history, which states that she was thought to be the first white child born in the area, makes no mention of a twin.

Gene Notterman of Adams, MN, who has published a family history which includes the family of John Peter Huemann. He lists Emma as the 7th child with no birth or death dates. He states, on page 119, that she was the first wife of Peter May and that she died childless. However, from the Johnsburg, McHenry Co, Illinois church records, there seems little doubt that they did have two children, the first of which died within two hours of birth.
